

Break Time Bible Study Esther Chapter 1

by Beth Beutler

Reading: Esther 1

Take some notes about the detailed description of the setting for the party (you will find this early in the chapter.) What does it say about God that He allowed such description of this event?

In verse 10, what do we see that affected the king's judgment?

What elements in your life can have a negative affect on your judgment if not controlled?

Fatigue Food Entertainment Shopping

Unhealthy habit Gossip Other?

The king listened to his advisors. Was this a mistake?

List three to five people that you consider to be advisors in your life. Now, honestly assess whether their influence on you is generally positive or negative.

How do you feel about Queen Vashti?

Spend some time in prayer over either the elements in your life that may need to change, or whether you need to seek for or change friendships/advisors.

Image: Catherine Hadler / FreeDigitalPhotos.net

Beth Beutler

